The Anti-ragging committee's meeting was conducted at Achhruram Memorial College at 2.00 pm on 10/09/2018 in the Principal's Chamber. As per the directions from AICTE, UGC and SKBU the Anti- Ragging cell is conducting the meeting for members and students. The main objective for conducting the meeting is to create a ragging free campus so that the students can come together and develop their educational experiences.

The meeting was headed by the Principal Dr. Arup Kanti Konar. The committee discussed on various issues to avoid ragging and make the college a ragging free campus. The meeting started with a welcome address by the Principal. He welcomed all the members of the anti-ragging committee. Our Principal discussed about the various steps taken by the College in making the institution ragging free that makes the best possible learning environment for the students of the college. He spells the slogan for Anti-Ragging "We are better, together at home". Then all the members of the committee gave many suggestions for the formation of ragging free environment in the College. Discussion continued monitoring the students during lunch breaks and intervals, instructing the students about to whom to communicate in case of ragging, the College's phone number, and Principal's phone number etc. The Committee members suggested conducting a workshop by inviting police officers and eminent personalities to address freshers and senior students about anti ragging. Dr. Sharmistha Mukherjee shared her experience during her college days and how the systems are constructed to avoid ragging.

It was decided that the next meeting will be in the month of September of next year unless otherwise needed. After these interactions with all the members, the meeting comes to an end with the formal vote of thanks by our Principal.
